How to Hold a Successful Home Lingerie/Toy Party

By hosting a home Lingerie/Toy Party, you'll earn a FREE credit or merchandise.

Call your consultant

She'll work with you to schedule your party. Your consultant will send you a kit with catalogs, order forms and invitations that you can mail to your guests.

Invite your friends

Invite twice the number of people you want to come to the party. Ask your guests to bring friends as well. Also let them know that they can win free merchandise and prizes.

Take outside orders

Guests who cannot attend can place their orders with you, and you can earn more credit.

Prepare snacks

Sodas and chips are a nice touch – you don't have to spend a lot.

Follow up

Talk to your guests before the party to insure attendance. Ask them what sizes, and what kinds of lingerie/toys they are interested in ... nice or naughty?

Have your friends book a party

When your guests book their own parties, you'll earn FREE booking gifts on qualifying parties held within 60 days.
